UM SINGING JUBILEERS,
AROTC GROUPS VISIT
VETERANS AT FT. HARRISON

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana singing Jubileers, under the direction of Dr. Joseph A. Mussulman, a UM music professor, recently entertained the veterans hospitalized at Ft. Harrison Veterans Center near Helena.

Accompanying the Jubileers and Dr. Mussulman on their second annual visit to Ft. Harrison were Army ROTC cadets from the University and members of the K'dettes, the women's auxiliary to AROTC at UM. The students visited with and entertained more than 100 of the patients at Ft. Harrison.

Cadet Maj. Steve Garrison presented two TV sets to Charles C. Walters, Ft. Harrison director. The sets were donated to the patients by the AROTC cadets.

The visit was coordinated by William B. Hillbrick, director of volunteer service at Ft. Harrison. His secretary, Mrs. Ina Sparing, provided the refreshments.
